Re: FOIA Request NLRB-2023-002216

Dear Brandon Block (Crosscut/KCTS 9):

This is in response to your request, under the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA), 5 U.S.C. § 552, received on September 18, 2023, in which you seek “[a]ll Unfair Labor Practices charges filed involving employers and worksites based in the state of Washington during the month of February 2023.” You assumed financial responsibility for the processing of your request in the amount of $5.00.

We acknowledged your request on September 18, 2023. Your request for expedited processing has been granted, given your placement as news media.

A search of the Agency’s electronic casehandling system, NxGen, has been conducted. This search located responsive charges and associated amended charges (82 pages), which are attached.

After a review, I have determined that certain information in the attached records is exempt from disclosure under Exemptions 6 and 7(C) of the FOIA (5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(6) and (b)(7)(C)). Specifically, redactions have been made to protect the privacy interests of individuals named in the records. These redactions were made pursuant to FOIA Exemption 6, which protects personally identifiable information the release of which would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy, and FOIA Exemption 7(C), which protects records or information compiled for law enforcement purposes, the release of which could reasonably be expected to constitute an unwarranted invasion of personal privacy. 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(6) and (b)(7)(C). In addition, certain information warrants protection under Exemption 7(A). (5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(7)(A)). Specifically, in the charges involving open cases, certain information was redacted so as not to cause harm or interfere with the ongoing investigation into the charge allegations. Exemption 7(A) allows an agency to withhold information and/or records contained in an open investigatory file records where disclosure could reasonably be expected to interfere with enforcement proceedings. See NLRB v. Robbins Tire & Rubber Co., 437 U.S. 214, 236 (1978).

For the purpose of assessing fees, we have placed you in Category C, as a representative of the news media, in that you qualify as a person “actively gathering news for an entity that is organized and operated to publish or broadcast news to the public.” NLRB Rules and Regulations, 29 C.F.R. § 102.117(d)(1)(vii). Accordingly, there is no charge assessed for this request. Given your placement as a news media requester, your request for a fee waiver is moot.

You may contact William Hearne, the FOIA Attorney-Advisor who processed your request, at (202) 273-0139 or by email at william.hearne@nrlb.gov, as well as the Agency’s FOIA Public Liaison, for any further assistance and/or to discuss any aspect of your request. The FOIA Public Liaison, in addition to the FOIA Attorney-Advisor, can further explain responsive and releasable agency records, suggest agency offices that may have responsive records, and/or discuss how to narrow the scope of a request in order to minimize fees and processing times. The contact information for the FOIA Public Liaison is:

Any appeal must be postmarked or electronically submitted within 90 calendar days of the date of this letter. Any appeal should contain a complete statement of the reasons upon which it is based.

Please be advised that contacting any Agency official (including the FOIA Attorney-Advisor, FOIA Officer, or the FOIA Public Liaison) and/or OGIS does not stop the 90-day appeal clock and is not an alternative or substitute for filing an administrative appeal.

Sincerely,

/s/ Kristine M. Minami
